GEOGRAPHY: People, Places, and Environments

Content Standard

Students in Wisconsin will learn about geography through the study of the relationships among people, places, and environments.

Standard A.8.9

Describe how buildings and their decoration reflect cultural values and ideas, providing examples such as cave paintings, pyramids, sacred cities, castles, and cathedrals

Activity: Students will analyze Milwaukee's music venues and describe how the venue reflected cultural values and ideas about the surrounding neighborhood, community, and the greater Milwaukee area.

Directions: Use the Melodies and Memories website located at <http://mkemelodiesandmemories.weebly.com/>

Select one venue from the "MKE Venue Map". Then do some outside further research. Write a one page description that details how your chosen venue reflected cultural values and ideas about the surrounding neighborhood, community, and the greater Milwaukee area.
